

A detailed pencil drawing of a man's head and shoulders, rendered in a realistic style. The man has short, dark hair and is looking slightly downwards and to the left. His facial features, including the nose, lips, and jawline, are carefully shaded to create depth and texture. He is wearing a dark, draped garment that covers his shoulders and chest. The background is plain white, which makes the dark tones of the drawing stand out. Overlaid on the center of the man's face is the Japanese text 'デッサン' (Dessan), which translates to 'sketching' or 'drawing'.
